

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Friday, January 18, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

Schools' solvency uncertain

College Board selection plan OK'd

DHS: Youth division needs \$2M restored

Tulane expected to get state OK

Dem & Rep try to gain a better's edge ...

Washington treated business well in 2001

Many officials involved in probe have ties to Enron

Enron, upset over advice, releases firm

More

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

Congress members took Enron donations

Who's at fault? Enron, Andersen blame each other

College Board change gets OK

Longer payback sought for island

Few airport delays so far as new screening begins

IN BRIEF

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

Senate OKs College Board changes

Johnson accepts position with Attorney General's office

AG Murder file probably public record

Senate 'yes' needed -- Ayers closure edges ahead in House's vote

Letters to the Editor

Meridian Star Meridian Mississippi

College Board revamp effort clears Senate, heads to House

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi

Residents oppose landfill

Local legislators looking to State of the State

Ceremony dictates Legislature's start

Legislators discuss issues at event

Possible budget cuts worrying supervisors

Will lawmakers learn lesson in redistricting?

Legislative immunity loophole needs closing

Burning tobacco fund isn't fix for budget pinch

Lawmakers should use knife judiciously

Should feds choose new district lines?

Capitol focus should be on realistic budget

Debunking the 'fairy tales' about tort laws

Will lawmakers learn lesson in redistricting?

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Senate approves College Board districts

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

Economist: Don't look for more apparel jobs

Editorials for Friday, Jan. 18, 2002
Charlie Mitchell: Some lofty goals in education
Editorials for Thursday, Jan. 17, 2002
Sid Salter: Who Enron helped in Mississippi
Jack Elliott: College Board's nightmare districts

Stateline.org

Post-9/11 Gesture Sparks Legislative Row
Politics

The Clarksdale Press Register

Colleges getting the shaft in the state budget

The Bolivar Commercial

Capps believes Mississippi can afford Ayers settlement
IMMUNITY: Being equal in eyes of the law
LEGISLATURE: Projection could get prickly

The Greenwood Commonwealth Greenwood, Mississippi

Senate OKs College Board districts
Apparel-making jobs lost
Musgrove speech short on specifics
Resolution endorsing college desegregation pact clears House
Spells says terror fear shows the need for crop-duster regulation
College Board approves \$58 million for improvements

Mississippi Business Journal

The logo for 'Today's News' is a blue rectangular box with the words 'Today's News' written in white, italicized, serif font.

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, Tenn.

Mississippi Senate OKs resolution endorsing college deseg settlement

The New York Times

The Washington Post